

THE PALETTE

A winter of warm greys

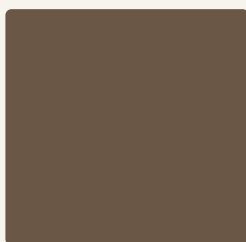

The single most common winter mistake is a cool-neutral one — white walls, grey floor, cool-toned furniture — which reads as a waiting room. The Japandi palette is warm-neutral. Look at what actually goes grey in nature: stone, bark, fog, ash, weathered wood. None of it is blue. Choose five tones with red and yellow underneath, hold an ember in reserve, and stop.

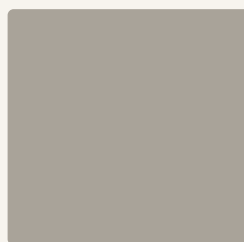

Warm greige
#D9D2C7 · walls

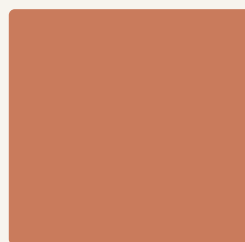

Oat
#E7DECB · linen

Walnut
#6B5746 · wood

Stone
#A9A399 · ceramic

Ember
#C97B5C · the one
accent

"Warmth isn't a colour. It's the restraint to use only five."