

ONE ROOM, THREE BUDGETS

A calm winter living room

The same room — three pools of light, two weights of wool, one ember — assembled at three budgets. Start anywhere on the ladder; the principles don't change with the price.

THE STARTER · $

Rice-paper pendant, a cable-knit throw, three bud vases, the seagrass baskets. Under a hundred, and the room already turns warm.

THE CONSIDERED · $$

Add the ceramic lamp pair, the linen duvet, the fluted oak side table, the tetsubin. The room gains its gravity and its glow.

THE HEIRLOOM · $$$

A solid-oak piece you'll keep for decades, hand-thrown stoneware throughout, a single commissioned print. Bought once, kept for good.
