

THE EDIT

Fourteen first things

For the season of opening up. Grouped the way a spring clean runs — first what clears, then what lightens, then the one living thing, then the table set for longer days.
Each is one we'd own; the link earns a small commission, the choice earns your trust.

Remember lagom: not the most, not the least.
The sufficient amount, chosen well.
