

ONE ENTRY, THREE BUDGETS

A spring entryway

A surface, a basket beneath, one branch, one print — at three budgets. The composition doesn't change with the price.

THE STARTER · $

An abaca basket, a single bud vase, a branch from outside, and one of the Calm & Oak prints on the wall. Under fifty, and the first impression is composed.

THE CONSIDERED · $$

Add a slim console and a pair of linen curtains nearby to soften the hall light. The entry becomes a room rather than a corridor.

THE HEIRLOOM · $$$

A solid oak console kept for decades, a framed original above it, a single hand-thrown vessel. Bought once, greeting you for years.
