

III — THE GATHERING TABLE

- AmorArc stoneware dinnerware Eighteen pieces, earth-toned, reactive-glazed — the warm table laid for a few. $$ SHOP →
-
- Japanese donabe clay pot Banko-yaki — the autumn hotpot at the centre of the table, cooked and served from one vessel. $$ SHOP →
-
- Hand-thrown stoneware mugs, 4 For the warm drink that follows the meal, low light, no rush. $ SHOP →

IV — THE SEASON, KEPT

- Briful ribbed terracotta vase The autumn ember, in glazed clay — built to hold dried stems. $ SHOP →
-
- Tall dried pampas, set of 3 The living thing, preserved at the turn. Three plumes, kept for seasons. $ SHOP →
-
- Cast-iron tetsubin teapot The four o'clock fire returns — warm tea against the early dark. $$ SHOP →

