

THE AUTUMN TURN

Eight small moves

Most of it free. Tear this page out, or don't.

- Bring the wool back down; layer two weights of the same warm tone.
 - Lower the light — lamps and candles, never the overhead.
 - Cut and hang a few stems to dry in a dark corner.
 - Break one matched pair; vary the heights.
 - Shift one centred print off to the side.
 - Keep the chipped, worn thing. Let it show.
 - Lay a table for a few, low and warm, the centre clear.
 - Invite someone. The calmest room of the year is a full one.
